LEARN MORE ABOUT THE USAC SEOUL - YONSEI UNIVERSITY PROGRAM

Historically, USAC awards more than $2 million in scholarships, grants, and discounts annually.

USAC is an award-winning nonprofit international education provider. Since 1982, USAC has provided affordable, valuable study abroad programs that enable you to enhance your academics while providing opportunities and lessons that build interpersonal, time-management, problem-solving, and adaptability skills that will aid in your career development.

UMD partners with USAC to offer affiliate program options to UMD students across the globe. While you will maintain your UMD student status while you are away, you will work directly with USAC program staff as a participant on their program. Your EA advisor, listed above, will assist you with this process and can answer your questions about the application process.

Academics on a USAC program

Visit the Academics & Study Abroad page which outlines key considerations for your academic planning as you navigate different phases of study abroad:

- Pre-Departure Course Selection & Approval
- Finalizing Course Enrollment Abroad
- Transcripts and Credits on your UMD Record

Browse UMD course evaluations in the Study Abroad Course Database:

Course Evaluations](#)

There may be other course offerings on this program that are not currently listed in the Study Abroad Course Database (SACD). If you are interested in taking a course not listed in the SACD, please submit a transfer credit evaluation request.

You will be required to order a transcript from your USAC sponsoring institution and have it sent to Education Abroad in order for your transfer credits to be evaluated and applied to your UMD degree. Information on this process will be available for you in your USAC Gateway Account under "Credit Transfer Instructions." If enrolled in only courses approved as resident credit, an official transcript is not required.

Costs & Billing for a USAC program

The affiliate program costs apply to this program. More details about the specific fees for this program are available on the USAC program page.

USAC program fees will be charged to your UMD student account. You will be able to use your UMD financial aid towards these charges.

Housing (if not included in program fee) and extra charges such as homestay meal supplement or costs for activities will be paid directly to USAC.

Scholarships for this program are available through the UMD Education Abroad Scholarship.
